

Epilepsy Resources

for Washington State Families

Epilepsy Foundation of America

www.epilepsyfoundation.org

(800) 332-1000

Information about epilepsy including cause; treatment; seizure first aid; online e-communities; epilepsy treatment travel funds; national events; legal and government advocacy programs. Website has sections for children, teens, and parents; includes a Quick Start Guide for parents of newly diagnosed children and a video addressing common fears and concerns of parents.

Epilepsy Foundation Northwest

www.epilepsynw.org

(800) 752-3509

Offices in Seattle and Spokane with partner agencies in Tri-Cities and Anchorage. Information about Northwest epilepsy medical centers; epilepsy; emergency medication assistance; community resources; education and training programs; summer camp; advocacy programs; support and networking groups; local events and more.

Epilepsy- Medline Plus

www.nlm.nih.gov/medlineplus/epilepsy.html

Website offers timely information about epilepsy including causes, diagnosis, symptoms, treatment; lists useful organizations and resources; includes videos and tutorials; and provides web links for children, teens, and Spanish readers.

KidsHealth—Epilepsy

http://kidshealth.org/kid/health_problems/brain/epilepsy.html

Website for children and youth offers information about seizures—what they are, when they happen and living a normal life with seizures.

Citizens United for Research in Epilepsy (CURE)

www.cureepilepsy.org/home.asp

(800) 765-7118

Nonprofit organization dedicated to finding a cure for epilepsy. Raises research funds; works to increase awareness of people living with epilepsy; provides news on research breakthroughs and research participation opportunities.

Epilepsy.com

www.epilepsy.com

(540) 687-8077

Website offers information and community for people living with epilepsy. The mission is to inform and empower families facing epilepsy. A partnership of family advocates, industry, and researchers.

Center for Children with Special Needs
www.cshcn.org

